

EtherNet/IP Web Server Module

Catalog Number 1756-EWEB

These release notes describe a known anomaly and workaround procedure that exists with this module.

Use these release notes along with the installation instructions, publication 1756-IN588, and the user manual, publication ENET-UM527.

Known Anomaly in Firmware Version 1.2

In this release of firmware, use only the module's Network Configuration web page to assign network parameters.

To assign network parameters to the module:

1. Use a DHCP server to initially assign the IP address.
2. Use the module's Network Configuration web page to assign network parameters.

To access the module's Network Configuration web page, refer to page 17 of the installation instructions.

EtherNet/IP is a registered trademark of Digital Equipment Corporation, Intel and Xerox.
